Mr. Oscar Roberts Jackson, Sr.

Oscar Roberts Jackson, was born August 8, 1914 in Nashville, Tennessee. He was the fourth of five children of the late William and Lizzie Payton Jackson. He was a 1931 graduate of Nashville's Pearl High School and received his Bachelor's degree from Tennessee State University and Master's degree from the University of North Carolina. He was also involved in studies at Yale University (Certificate of Alcohol Studies), Mammouth College (Diploma in Reading) and performed post-graduate work at Fisk University.

After graduating from North Carolina, he served as the Dean of Men at Natchez College in Mississippi and later at Tougaloo College also in Mississippi. He returned to Nashville in 1950 and taught for two years as a classroom teacher at the former Washington Junior High in North Nashville. In the Fall of 1951, he became principal of Carter-Lawrence Elementary School and served in that capacity until the Spring of 1958.

In the Fall of 1958 he served as principal of Cameron High School until he retired in the Spring of 1970. He served as Principal of Cameron until suffering a heart attack in 1970. He retired from Metropolitan Nashville Public Schools on April 23, 1971.

Some of his professional, educational and civic memberships in Nashville included: Charter Member Bordeaux YMCA, Board of Directors of Nashville Urban League, Life Member of National Education Assn., National Assn of Secondary School Principals, Omega Psi Phi and Phi Delta Kappa Fraternities, 33rd Degree Mason and Frontiers International.

Mr. Jackson was a man for all seasons. He was a "tough boss" who could be abrasive, but one knew he was a teacher with a mission. He was king of all he surveyed and no one seemed to have ever doubted it.

Mr. Jackson, as has been noted, was a legend in education – legends tend to live on in the minds of those who remember. The torch has now been passed to a new generation.
